Christopher Popejoy

Christopher Popejoy was born in Mineral county West Virginia and was taken to Ross county Ohio by his parents when he was eleven years of age. His father's brother Tarrance Popejoy and family accompanied them,and both families located at or near the present village of Austin, being among the first white settlers in the region. Christopher spent much of his boyhood among the Indians,and is said to have spoken several dialects in addition to French and German. After he was married and had a family, it was his custom to spend several days each summer visiting among his Indian friends.

After the Indians had been removed from Ohio to the Mississippi River region, they were allowed to send small groups annually to visit their old home and burial sites. By this time,Christopher had removed to his new home in Indiana. He received annual visits from his Indian friends when they were enroute to their old Ohio home. Those who were too old or unable for other reasons to make the journey would send him pictograph messages which were preserved by the family until recent years. They were burnt upon the inner side of tree bark.

Christopher served in the War of 1812 from Ross county Ohio,as a sergeant in the company of Captain Henry Mallow,first regiment,Ohio State Militia. Captain Mallow was the husband of Christopher's sister Sarah, and Michael Bowers,who was a private in the same company was a brother of Christopher's wife. For this service he received land in Wayne township,Fayette county,to which he removed his family. They had been living in Frankfort,Ohio.While living there,he joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, May 31.1823, and after removing to Indiana was licensed as a local preacher.

On October 21,1829,he was commissioned a captain in the first regiment,second brigade, fifth division,Ohio State Militia, by Governor Allen Trimble. His company was known as "The Fayette Independent Rifles". From this time he was generally referred to as Captain Popejoy.

When the land in Wells county Indiana was opened for entry, he entered 160 acres in Harrison township on February 7,1839, being the third person listed in the entry book. He built a lean-to about the trunk of a large tree in which he lived while clearing some land and erecting a log house to which he could later bring the family. In the spring of 1840 he brought the family to the new home. The journey was made by wagon and was well remembered by his daughter Susan who was nine years of age at the time, and who walked all the way beside the wagon which contained their possessions. There had been a tornado which had blown many large trees across the trails they had to travel. As a result, the journey required six weeks.

Christopher's Indiana home was a station on the "Under-ground rail way" for the protection of slaves who were fleeing to Canada from the South during the Civil War. He is said to have had a mild disposition, loving peace and harmony, but would fearlessly defend his principles if imposed upon. His two wives were twin sisters,and daughters of Michael and Mary Bowers who were also among the first white settlers in Concord township,Ross county Ohio.(See Bowers Family) His first wife and several children who died young are thought to be buried in a private family cemetery on the farm in Fayette county Ohio. He died in 1871 at his farm home in Indiana,and he, his second wife and several children are buried in the Bethel M.E.Churchyard cemetery which is near the farm home. They were members of this church.

Christopher's first wife drowned after falling into a flood swollen creek near their farm home in Fayette county Ohio. A log foot bridge slipped while she was crossing, throwing her into the swirling water from which she was unable to save herself.

Excursus-----Starr Family.

According to family tradition,Moses Starr,above,father of Benjamin,was born at Baltimore,Md.,descendant of one of four brothers of the name who emigrated from England to Maryland. He married a Miss Webb,also said to have been born in Baltimore,who may have been a daughter of Benjamin Webb who was an early settler of Robeson tshp., Berks county,Penna. Moses and family emigrated to the"Glades of W.Va.,"near what is now Clarksburg,later removing to Athens,Ohio,and finally settling at Gore,Hocking county,Ohio. Mr.Starr erected and operated a grain mill at Gore, and both he and his wife died there. His sister Elizabeth,who had married a Mr.Nutter, at Nutter's Fort in W.Va.,brought her large family of children to Gore after the death of her husband. (See Nutter Family, page)

According to the annals of Berks county,Penna., one Moses Starr and wife,Quakers, settled in Maidencreek township about 1720, and are thought to have been the first two persons to locate in that then remote region. He purchased 551 acres of land on Maiden Creek,and erected a mansion in 1729 which was preserved until about 1880.By the latter date, the Starrs had long ceased to be citizens of the township. They were members of the Maiden Creek Friends Meeting. Those named in the records of the county and of the Quakers in the early years are as follows: The tax list for Maxatawney township for 1734 bears the names of Moses and Isaac Starr; witnesses as members of the family at the marriage of Samuel Hughes and Elizabeth Willets, 10 Ap.1747,are:Moses,Deborah,Isaac,Margaret,John,James and Thomas Starr; Moses, Merrick,and Isaac Starr signed a petition dated 20 July 1746; Moses Starr mentioned as a J.P., and Representative to the Assembly from Berks county,in 1752 and 1754; a tax list for 1759 names Moses Jr.,and Merrick Starr as heads of families, and John as single; witnesses named as members of the family at the marriage of Joseph Lightfoot and Deborah Hutton,11 July 1759,are: Moses,John, James,Starr, and others attending were; Phoebe,Moses Jr.,and Margery Starr.

It seems from the above that some if not all of the four immigrant brothers removed from Maryland to Pennsylvania at an early period.

Excursus----Nutter Family.

Benjamin and Margaret Martin Nutter(above),were born in West Virginia and emigrated to Hocking county,Ohio,with their parents.After their marriage,they removed to Wells county,Indiana, where Mr.Nutter entered 80 acres of land in Harrison township,15 Jan.1838. This became their permanent home. Benjamin was a son of ..... Nutter whose wife was Elizabeth Starr.(see Starr Family). After Benjamin's father's death at the home on the west bank of the Hughes River, in West Virginia, the mother and her children removed to the home of her brother at Gore,Hocking county,Ohio. Margaret Martin Nutter was a daughter of Patrick Martin,who died in Ireland while on a visit to his old home.Her mother's name ~~is not known~~ was Cynthia.

There is frequent mention of the Nutter family in the early records of the Eastern Shore of Maryland. The earliest one seems to have been Christopher Nutter,born about 1636/40,who was in Northampton county,Virginia,Aug.1662; in the Manokin region on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, where he entered himself and wife for headright land, 4 Sept.1665; patented "Nutter's Delight" of 150 acres,23 Sept.1665; lived at"Nutter's Purchase" from 1666 to 1674; removed to Somerset county; to Wicomico,to "Nutter's Neck"; interpreter for the Indians 1693;died 1702/3. His wife was Mary(probably Dorman) and their issue as follows: John,b,1667,d,infancy; Sarah,b,1669,d,infancy; JohnII,b,1670,d,1702,went to Sussex co.Del.;Sarah II,b,1674/5,m,Capt.Wm.Piper; Christopher Jr.b,1687,d,infancy;Charles 1680-1733,went to Dorchester county,Md.; Thomas 1681-ante 1702;Christopher III,1683-1729,m,Margaret(prob.Mackmorie);Matthew ,b,ca.1685-1720,m,Ann Hewitt,dau.of Rev.John; William,b,ca.1687.

later members of the family emigrated to West Virginia where Thomas Nutter erected Nutter's Fort in 1772. He had come to the region in 1770, and later served as a Captain in the American Revolution. The village that grew about the site of his home bears the name of Nutter's Fort.Those in the region who were named in the census of 1782 and of 1785 as heads of families were: Christopher; John; Matthew; and Thomas. One of these men is probably the ancestor of Banjamin who became a pioneer of Wells county,Indiana.

One Thomas Nutter was a pioneer of Colerain township,Ross county,Ohio.

Robert Jamison,father of William(above) was born 1804, and is said to have been born in Ross county,Ohio, a son of William Jamison by his second wife whose name is not now known. Robert married,in Ross county, Mary Ann Stucky(also spelled Stookey) who was born there in 1811. They removed to Wells county,Indiana,where Robert died in 1879, his wife in 1908. Both are buried in th Mc Farren cemetary near Liberty Center, Indiana.

William(the father of Robert) was born,1746,in Philadelphia,Penna., a son of Robert and Sarah McKee Jamison who had emigrated from Ireland to Philadelphia, where both died in 1802. This Robert was a son of William Jamison who was a native of near Leath, county Midlothian,Scotland, and who emigrated to Ulster Ireland about 1685.

William (son of the immigrant Robert) served as a private under Captain David Marpole,Philadelphia county,Penna.,Militia,1st.Batt.,5 co.,American Revolution.* He later removed to Bourbon county,Kentucky from whence he went to Ross county Ohio,Sept.1796, being among the first white settlers to arrive there. He died in the county, the father of eleven children by his first wife who was Susannah Loakhart, and two by a second wife. The memoirs left by a son make no mention of the two youngest children, but a History of the county states that he had thirteen children by two wives.

Mary Ann Stucky Jamison was a daughter of Jacob and Susannah Hire Stucky. Jacob born 1 May 1778, in Virginia, ~~and~~ settled in Ross county Ohio about 1800. He married there,3 Ap.1808,Susannah Hire who was born in Virginia,a daughter of Michael and Elizabeth Hire. She died in Ross county, 27 Nov.1788. Jacob later went to McDonough county,Illinois where a son had located. He died there,11 Sept. 1855, and is buried in the Moore cemetary. He was a veteran of the War of 1812, having served as a private in the Ohio State Militia, from Ross county He was a son of Abraham Stucky who married Margaret Peterson in Virginia in 1766, and who removed to Somerset county,Penna.,1793, where they lived for some years before locating in Buckskin township,Ross county,Ohio, which became their permanent home. Abraham was a son of Simon and Barbara Fox Stucky who are thought to have been the immigrant ancestors of this branch of the Stucky-Stooky family. Simon died near Hagerstown,Maryland, about 1785.

For ancestry of Susannah Hire Stucky, see Hire-Stucky-Stooky Family.

Emanuel Popejoy

(Obituary) Emanuel Popejoy was born in Ross county Ohio, June 8, 1818. He was married in that county, March 7, 1844 to Hannah Stuckey. They emigrated from there to Wells county Indiana in 1850, locating on a farm in Liberty township, which became their permanent home. About 1856, he joined the Brethren Church and held membership there until the Civil War, at which time there was some dissatisfaction, and the organization ceased to be. In 1868 he joined the Sugar ~~Creek~~ Grove Dunkard Church and remained an earnest and devoted member until death. He was willing to spend his time and means for the promotion of Principles he held sacred. If able to go anywhere, he was able to go to church, prayer meeting, and Sunday school, and admonished others to go. The last words he was ever heard to vocalize in song was in Hope Hospital, in Ft. Wayne, while his eyes were blindfolded. They were these:

"When life's weary journey is ended,
And I my Saviour do see,
I'll praise him forever and ever
For saving a sinner like me."

He died, June 17, 1894, after a long and protracted illness, on a quiet Lord's day morning, when the east was being streaked with the morning light, and the birds were warbling their morning songs----the spirit took it's flight to the great beyond. Funeral services were held in the home by Elder J. Spitzer who spoke from Revelations 22: 12.

He was the first person to be buried in the Sugar Grove cemetery. A rail fence was placed about his grave to keep the live-stock away until a fence could be erected about the entire grounds. The cemetery is now known as the Jones cemetery, near Mt Zion, Indiana. Wells county.

The following account was published October 9,1957.

Citationis presented to Bob Heckman by National Society/

Indianapolis,Indiana;

Despite being handicapped himself,a young Hoosier is devoting his life to helping other crippled children and adults climb the road of rehabilitation.

He is Robert Heckman,3o,of Muncie,Indiana,formerly of Liberty Center,Ind.paralized from the waist down,who is executive secretary of the Delaware (Indiana)County Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

Because of his grim determination and outstanding courage to outwit his own handicap;and at the same time help others ,Bob has received the "Who's Crippled?"citation,coveted award of the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

The award wasz presented by Dean W.Roberts,executive director of the national society,at the annual meeting and state wide conference of its Easter Seal affiliate,the Indiana Society for Crippled Childreh and Adults at the Antlers Hotel in Indianapolis recently/

"The citation Bob received states:

"In recognition of an outstanding adjustment to a severe physical handicap,the National Society for Crippled Childreh and Adults,salute Robert Heckman for valiant spirit and determination in building a normal succesful life."

In 195o while working with his father on a construction job in Evansville,Bob was injured when the brake band on a crane broke causing the machines bucket to swing out of control,striking him in the back.His spine was fractured with resulting paraplegia.He spent four months receiving physical therapy at the Robert Long Hospital in Indianapolis,and Bob says that the many contacts he made while at the hospital contributed in making his readjustment less difficult.

Before being injured,Bob attended Swarthmore College, Purdue and Ball State Teachers College,earning his B.S.degree in 1949.At the present time he is attending evening school working toward his masters degree.

After his accident he worked as deputy surveyor of Wells County taught school and has held his present assignment with the Delaware County Society for Crippled Children and Adults since February 1955.In his work on behalf of the crippled,Bob set up a day camping program in his first year with the Society,and in 1956 started a pre-school nursery project.He is currently building a resident camp for crippled children,having already raised $28,ooo toward it's cost.

"Who's Crippled?".Not Robert Heckman.He serves as a shining example of how a handicapped person can conquer a severe physical disability and make a distinct contribution to society.

Excursus----Pence Family.

George Oregon Pence(above) was born in Wells county,Indiana,5 February 1851,a son of Peter and Sarah Jane Sloan Pence. He married,13 April 1874,Emma Celesta Myers who was born in Wells county 9 September 1853, a daughter of David Myers.Both were lifelong residents of the county. Mr.Pence passed away in March 1928,his wife 20 February 1929. Both are buried in the mausoleum at Fairview cemetary, at Bluffton.

Peter Pence was born in Hocking county,Ohio,15 July 1817,one of the nine children of John Pence who emigrated from western Virginia to Hocking county in the spring of 1798 with a group of families that formed the first settlement in the county. Peter's sister Rebecca was the first white child born in the county. Peter married Sarah Jane Sloan who was born in county Armagh Ireland,4 July 1818, and emigrated to Wells county Indiana with their children, arriving 15 May 1847. They were the parents of 10 children. Peter died 18 December 1898,his wife died 19 April 1891. Both are buried in Bethel cemetary,which is near their farm home. The first of the Pence family to arrive in the United States was Christian Frederick Panse (later Pence),who arrived in Philadelphia on the ship' Peggy), 24 September 1753. He located in lancaster county,Pennsylvania.With him came Johannes Franciscus.
Valentine Pence(probably a son of the Immigrant),married [it is believed] Catherine,daughter of Christopher and Anna Margaret Francisco Sr.,who were French Huguenots who settled in lancaster county Pennsylvania. Valentine and family and his brother Jacob removed to Rockingham county Virginia about 1755. One of these brothers is probably the father of John,the early settler of Hocking county Ohio.Valentine's will dated 1761names Peter Miller and Jacob Nicholas executors,(Rockingham county,Va.)
Emma Celesta Myers Pence(above)was a daughter of David and Rachel Miller Myers, and a grand daughter of Samuel Myers and of Adam Miller, all pioneer settlers of Wells county Indiana. The aforenamed are buried at Six Mile cemetary, near Bluffton,Indiana.

Excursus----Appelquist Family.

Gustav W.Appelquist(above)was born in Lemnhult,Småland,Sweden,27 Ap.1860,and came to the United States on the'City of Montreal',arriving at New York City,30 Sept. 1880.He located in Rock Island,Ill.,where three brothers had previously located, and married there,1885,Johanna Matilda larson,who was born in Essunga,Vaster Götland,Sweden,17 Jan.1861,a daughter of Lars and Britta Larson. They became the parents of four children. Mrs. Appelquist passed away at the home in Moline,Ill.,20 July 1923,and Mr.Appelquist passed on,14 Dec.1945. Both are buried at Riverside cemetary,Moline. Five brothers and one sister of Mrs.Appelquist also came to the United States; one sister and the parents remained in Sweden. Those who came to the United States took the name of West to avoid confusion in receiving mail as so many of the name of Larson lived in the community, and the families have since been known by that name.

Gustav was a son of Carl Peter Appelquist who was born 14 Ap 1814 at Tummashult,Bleking,Sweden and died at Lemnhult,Småland,2 Feb.1903,aged 89 years,3months.His wife was Johanna Maria Peterson,born near Lessebo,Bleking, May,1817. Her father was drowned at sea; her mother remarried to Mr.Erickson. Carl and Johanna were the parents of seven sons,no daughters. Johanna died at Lemnhult,1901. Bothe she and her husband are buried at Lemnhult.

Carl P.was a son of Peter Appelquist who was born at 'Applestor'(his father's farm) near Lessebo,Bleking. Peter removed to Karls Krona to work in a gun factory,and died at Tummashult,near Karls Krona. His wife's name is not known. They were the parents of 2 sons and 4 daughters. Peter was 84 years of age at time of death.His father and his father's brother had removed from the ancestral home near Kosta,Bleking, to Lessebo where they purchased the farm called'Applestor'. They changed their names to Appelquist (taken from Applestor),the name signifying'twig of the apple'. It is thought that all of the name are descended from these two men. The family name had been Schutte,and the forefathers are thought to have gone to Sweden with the Walloon Huguenot emigration from Flanders during the religious wars. The Swedish King offered asylum to the Wallooners who were considered most expert in the manufacture of armament. This offer resulted in a large migration. Gustav Appelquist and his forefathers for several generations were metal workers and gun-smiths, and family traditions agree that the earlier forefathers were also metal workers. The Schutte family bore a minor title(in Sweden) and Gustav was the last of his generation entitled to its use had he lived in the old homeland. On a visit to Sweden about 1925,he visited the ancestral homes at Kosta, and Lessebo, as well as his childhood home at Lemnhult. The name'Schutte'signifies'a shooter',in Dutch.

Excursus-----Linn Family.

Andrew Linn(above)was born in Monroe county,Ohio,18 June 1833,a son of Joshua and Rachel Hess Linn. He married Virginia Ellen Johns,who was born in Albemarle county Virginia,11 April 1836. They emigrated to Wells county,Indiana,17 September 1857, where they lived on their farm until they died. Andrew died 1 July 1910,his wife 29 Nov.1894. Both are buried in the Stahl cemetary,near Poneto.

Joshua Linn was born in Pennsylvania,23 April 1791,and died in Ohio in 1837. 320 acres of land in Harrison township,Wells county,Indiana,were entered in his name, 27 April 1837. It is not known whether he was present and returned to Ohio for other members of his family and died before he could return to the new home, or whether the land was entered for him by one of his sons who settled there at that time. He was a son of Andrew and Margaret Linn of Westmoreland county,Pennsylvania,his father dying there in 1811. Joshua's wife was also born in Pennsylvania,13 May 1794, the date and place of her death not now known.

According to family tradition,the first of the Linn family came from Ireland to Pennsylvania,and had seven sons who were born in Ireland. They lived on the frontier in Pennsylvania and were much harassed by Indian raids upon the settlement. One young son was scalped and carried into captivity by the Indians. Years later the family heard where he was being held.The Provincial Government ordered him brought in to be exchanged and returned to his family. He was not happy with them,however, and returned to live the balance of his life with the Indians whom he had come to love. The other six brothers had families in Pennsylvania, and their descendants are said to be numerous throughout the Nation. One of the six was the father of Andrew Linn who lived in Donegal township,Westmoreland county, Pennsylvania.

The burial place of Tarrance Popejoy and Nancy, his second wife. (Champe Popejoy)
Bloomingburg, Ohio, city cemetery.

Data relative to Tarrance Popejoy and his family from: Records of Virginia and West Virginia, Ross and Fayette county records (Ohio); private family papers; records of the Champe family; recollections of the Misses Lulu and Arena Tway of Bloomingburg, Ohio, and of others of the families closely related.

Excerpts from the Fayette Times published July.19,194o at Washington Court, House,Ohio relating interesting happenings since the city was established 13o years ago/.

Coming to this territory in 1811,John Popejoy was one of the first residents.He bought a lot and built a cabin and was soon thereafter elected justice of the peace,and in that capacity justice was rendered according to his own ideas rather than by way of the law books.His records were kept in a cra ck between the logs of the wall.

Jacob Jamison was another early resident.Rather quarrelsome.he fought often;was stabbed once,almost fatally,but in spite of that was a leading citizen.He was justice of the peace,commissioner,collector and judge.Henry De Witt married in Ross County and moved to Fayette, taking up land in Wayne township.

Other familliar names in early history were Jesse De Witt, James rowe,Thomas Green,Col.James Stewart,~~Phillip Stewart~~ High Stewart,Phillip Moor,James Kilpatrick,James Hays,George Creamer, Phillip Fent,William Robinson,Adam Allen,James Sanderson,Jacob Rankin, Rafe Durham,Thomas Fullertom,Henry Strope and Gen.Batteal Harrison.

Suppose we pull the curtain of time aside and take an imaginary look at Christmas in Fayette County,when log cabins were springing up in the wilderness like mushrooms over night.

I'll pick out a typical home-the log cabin of Mr.and Mrs.John Popejoy,located on a little eminence on the Old Lexington or Sargent Road.The road extends from Route 22 to Bloomingburg,which was then five years old and was known as New Lexington,so named by the founder Solomon Bowers.

The Popejoys had completed their log cabin home in 182o and were beginning to get accustomed to the Indians,who still lived in this area,and were becoming acquainted with their neighbors who lived in log cabins on adjacent tracts of land.

The Popejoy home was a typical settlers cabin,built of logs, fitted close together with clay mortar used to plaster up the open spaces:a chimney built of small logs with a heavy coating of clay inside to prevent the chimney from catching fire.Cracks in the punchion floor wre filled with split pieces of timber.The windows were small,the heavy door pegged together and swung on wooden hinges,with heavy latch inside.A buckskin thong attached to the latch extended upward to a small hole in the door and was suspended outside.

Early settlers had little company and were always delighted when anyone called on them,and they always left the latchstring outside as an invitation to enter.

Thereby originated the expression of welcome "the latch string always hangs out".

The Popejoys had not yet bult the "lean-to" to the main two room log cabin with its big fire-place,but this was built later and used for a kitchen and dinning room.

Most of the furniture was home made and household equipment was meager,as all personal property had to be brought over the mountains when the Popejoys came here from Virginia and took up their abode in the wilderness.

I have taken a little space so that you would better understand why Christmas at the Popejoy home and in other Fayette County homes at the time,was totally different from the present day of glamor and gifts, decorated trees, glowing lights and with every convenience to make celebrations enjoyable.

Christmas Eve in 1820 was a cold one,with the ground covered with snow,and the occaisional howl of a wolf and hoot of the horned owl were proof that the predators were on the prowl.

Continued.

Inside the Popejoy home flickering candles cast a meager glow about the sizeable room, and a roaring fire in the big open fire place added greatly to th illumination and provided heat for the interior of the cabin.

Mr.and Mrs.Popejoy and their severl children ate their supper,consiisting of deer meat,potatoes,gravy,pumpkin pie,butter and corn bread.

Gathered about the fire after supper,Mrs.Popejoy told the children in simple terms the wonderful story of the Christ Child,the star that led the wisemen to the manger in Bethlehem,and other details of the great event when God placed a baby on the doorstep of the world.

The short evening before bedtime was spent in talking about Christmaas and Santa Claus,and each of the Popejoy children hung a yarn stocking about the mantel before retiring,confident that even in the wilderness Old Santa Claus would find them.Their stockings had been made from wool taken from the Popejoy sheep,carded,dyed and knitted by Mrs.Popejoy.All were up early Christmas morning and there was a rush to see what Santa Claus had left.They found delicious maple sugar candy, a popcorn ball,some hazelnuts and hickory nuts and a sweetcake (~~xxxxx~~) (cookie) in their stockings and were delighted.

There was no Christmas tree,no decorations and little else to set the day apart from any other day,except the gifts.Such a treat made the day one to be remembered by the entire family.
